Montgomery Historical Society Member Recognized

November 12, 2018. Tim Murphy of the Montgomery Historical Society was recognized by the Vermont Historical Society (VHS), and League of Local Historical Societies and Museums (LLHSM), with an Individual Achievement Award. Tim served the Society for over 40 years contributing his time and energies repairing and preserving Pratt Hall, the Town's first church now owned by the Society, and supporting other Society programs. He was also cited for his other heritage work in the Community particularly the Town Hall and Recreation Pavillion. His citation credits Tim's contributions over an extended period of time for "making an enduring contribution to the Montgomery Historical Society and the community."

The award was presented at the LLHSM Annual Meeting in Woodstock by VHS Director Steve Perkins on October 27th. This is the fourteenth LLHSM award received by the Montgomery Historical Society and its members since 2007. The Society sponsors a number of programs and events throughout the year.
