This corporation is organized for the purpose of bringing together people who are interested in the history of our community. Having a sound knowledge of our community's history, is basic to our democratic way of life, gives us a better understanding of our state and nation, and helps us better to appreciate our American Heritage.

Here set out purposes clearly and briefly, using separate paragraphs to cover each separate purpose.

The Society's major function will be to discover and collect any material which may help to establish or illustrate the history of Montgomery, its exploration, settlements, development, and activities in peace and in war; its progress in population, wealth, education, arts, science, agriculture, manufactures, trade and transportation. The Society will collect printed material such as histories, genealogies, biographies, descriptions, gazettes, directories, newspapers, pamphlets, catalogues, circulars, handbills, programs, and posters; manuscript material such as pictures, photographs, paintings, portraits, scenes, aboriginal relics, and material objects illustrative of life, conditions, events, and activities of the past or the present.

The Montgomery Historical Society may provide for the preservation of such material and for its accessibility, as far as may be feasible, to all who wish to examine or study it; co-operate with officials in insuring the preservation of historic buildings, monuments and markers.

The Montgomery Historical Society may disseminate historical information and arouse interest in the past by publishing historical material in the newspapers, holding meetings with pageants, addresses, lectures, papers and discussion, by marking historic buildings, sites, and trails and by using the media of radio and television to draw public interest.

The local society may cooperate with the state historical society to collect and preserve material of state-wide significance so that these materials may be made available to all persons interested in Montgomery and the State of Vermont.

This is a non-profit corporation.
